YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO EXCEL

Investors face increasingly complicated choices. They want specialized advice that's relevant to them, and that they can act on with confidence. Advisors with the right kind of knowledge and skills to help them effectively navigate this complex investment landscape have an exceptional opportunity.

Certified Investment Management Analyst® (CIMA®) is a professional certification for financial advisors and investment consultants that qualifies them to conduct advanced portfolio construction. The program requires completing a sophisticated investment curriculum to help professionals meet the real-world needs of individual and institutional investors. Additionally, CIMA executive education is taught exclusively at some of the world's most prestigious business schools.

WHAT DO YOUR CLIENTS WANT?*

of clients agree that their advisor should meet a rigorous set of requirements to be certified.

62%

of investors agree it is important or critical that their advisor provide cutting-edge investment strategies.

86%

of clients agree their advisor should meet ongoing standards in order to maintain the credential.

ELEVATE YOUR CAREER

Upon completion of the CIMA program, practitioners are better equipped to consult with clients and direct their investment portfolios than most advisors. As a CIMA practitioner you will be able to:

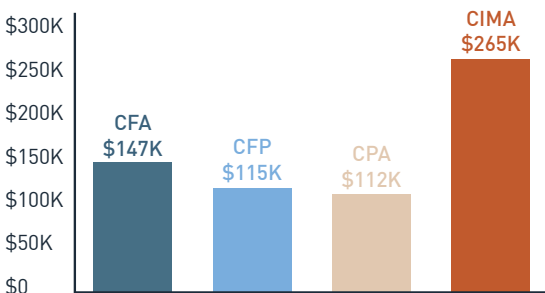

DIFFERENTIATE YOURSELF

When prospective clients are evaluating multiple advisors, having the CIMA certification differentiates you from average advisors.

ATTAIN HIGHER COMPENSATION

Compared to other financial advisors, CIMA holders report earning more and have nearly three times more assets per client. Practices with at least one CIMA professional have been shown to earn more than practices without one.

BUILD CLIENT CONFIDENCE

Achieving CIMA certification gives clients confidence that you have the sophisticated knowledge and expertise to provide sound advice as their needs and circumstances become increasingly complex.

> 60%

More than 60% of CIMA professionals indicate that obtaining CIMA certification had a considerable impact on their knowledge of investment management, their confidence offering investment advice to high-net-worth clients, and their confidence in managing investments.

GROW YOUR BUSINESS AND OPEN DOORS

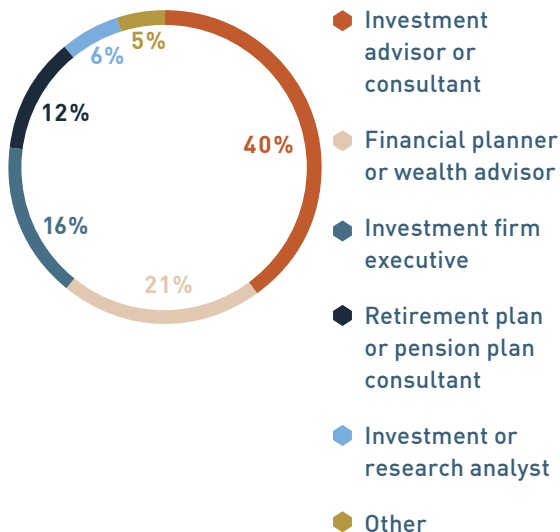

Institutions, wealthy individuals, and small business owners are particularly demanding when it comes to the qualifications of their advisors. The advanced investment management knowledge and skills required for CIMA certification can get their attention and satisfy their expectations.

CIMA holders who are also Investments & Wealth Institute members have access to top resources through our industry-leading conference programs, publications, and exposure to peer and industry leaders in our membership community.

THE RIGHT COMBINATION OF THEORETICAL KNOWLEDGE AND PRACTICAL SKILLS

Unlike other credentials, the CIMA certification is uniquely designed to provide a useful and relevant balance of theory and practical knowledge. It goes well beyond the fundamentals, with deep dives into advanced portfolio management, portfolio construction, and risk management techniques. The CIMA program provides a systematic process advisors and consultants can use to put their clients' strategies into action.

QUALITY ASSURED

CIMA certification maintains accreditation by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) under an international standard for personnel certifiers (ANSI/ISO 17024). ANSI is a prominent, independent, third-party accreditation organization that ensures essential quality requirements are met within the certification program.

ANSI accreditation assures regulators, industry firms, and consumers that the CIMA program meets international best practices for bona fide certifications, including:

- The certification process is valid, reliable, fair, transparent, and objective.
- CIMA certification consistently distinguishes those who meet a level of competency and skills as an investment advisor or consultant from those who don't.
- CIMA certification content is derived from an independent job analysis of the knowledge and skills needed by today's investment advisor professionals.
- The program is supported by an organization with sound management systems.
- CIMA certification has been accredited as a quality credential, which protects its value and provides reassurance for regulators, compliance departments, and your clients.

CIMA REQUIREMENTS

The following “Four E’s” are required to complete your CIMA certification:

EXPERIENCE

Candidates must exhibit three years of relevant experience in financial services before certification.

ETHICS

Applicants must disclose any potential or real violations of the Investments & Wealth Institute Code of Professional Responsibility. Additionally, they must successfully pass two comprehensive background checks.

EDUCATION

Before certification, candidates must complete an executive education course at one of several CIMA-registered education provider programs.

EXAMINATION

All candidates must pass a stringent examination administered at a third-party testing center prior to certification.

CERTIFICATION RENEWAL

CIMA practitioners must renew their certification every two years to ensure that they have the latest expertise and skills. Renewal requirements are:

- Complete and report 40 hours of continuing education credit, including two ethics hours.
- Adhere to the Investments & Wealth Institute Code of Professional Responsibility and report any complaints or disciplinary actions registered during the previous two-year period.
- Pay a renewal fee.
